 The Wedding Plan

“The “Wedding Plan” is not your mother’s rom-com, even if it may start out that way. Michal is a 32-year-old Orthodox Jewish woman in Jerusalem whose fiancé, Gidi, announces that he doesn’t love her. Crushed, yet bound and determined to get married anyway, the lonely Michal decides to keep her planned wedding date (22 days away, on the eighth night of Hanukkah), she puts her faith in G-d that a suitable groom will appear in time.

$5 per person thanks to a generous grant from San Antonio Jewish Senior Services.
